

In Memoriam

HOMER M. SHELDEN, D.D.S.

Dr. Homer M. Shelden passed away August 7th of this year at his home in Kansas City, Missouri.

Born in Topeka, Kansas, he had lived in Kansas City since his graduation from dental school in 1912. Dr. Shelden received his dental degree from the institution now known as the University of Missouri at Kansas City. Later he was graduated from the Edward H. Angle School of Orthodontia and remained an enthusiastic and staunch supporter of Dr. Angle. He was a member of the local, state, and national dental organizations, the American Association of Orthodontists, and a charter member of the Angle Society. For many years he was associated in practice with his older brother Frank and his nephew F. Copeland Shelden.

Dr. Shelden is survived by his widow and three daughters.
