

A CENTENNIAL SALUTE

To Dr. Robert H. W. Strang

Dr. Strang joined the staff of this journal as a member of the very first editorial board at its founding fifty years ago, and has served continuously in that capacity ever since. For many years he served as de facto editor, even though the masthead did not afford the appropriate recognition.

While we are recognizing a golden anniversary, he is looking forward to his one-hundredth birthday on February 22, 1981. His service to this journal is but a small part of a long lifetime of contributions to orthodontics and to humanity, and we take this opportunity to join colleagues and friends everywhere in this salute of gratitude.
